enrage 激怒

consent 同意，赞成

步骤二 无忧听写练习（参考答案见章末）

不看下文，听录音，按照录音中的要求，把你听到的内容写到空白练习纸上。

When you live in an apartment building, where only wall separates you from your neighbors, everyone needs to be considerate of each other. That's not what happened in my apartment building. Someone was always leaving the clothes in the washers and dryers in the laundry room. I got tired of running up and down the stairs to see if the clothes had been removed, so I could start my own one. Obviously someone else got tired, too. Because one day, someone took clothes from the washer and dryer, and dumped them in the corner. This act started a battle of letters posted on the wall of the laundry room. The first letter was from Mindy Lance who was really angry that her clothes had been removed from the washer and dryer, and dumped. She then threatened to dump everybody else's clothes she herself found in the washer and dryer. Mindy Lance's letter enraged other residents and they posted the letters to her. Eventually, Mindy began to behave properly but hard feelings remained. The problem couldn't have been resolved better. If residents had informed the building manager, she then could inform. All residents that the clothes should be removed from the washers and dryers within 50 minutes after their wash is done. Those who refuse to obey might not have their leases renew. That could be a fair consent solution. Neighbor problems may sometimes seem inevitable, but it's important to resolve them fairly.
